

Station 1: Meet Freds!

Person with the longest hair reads

- Welcome to Mr. Fredericks's class! At this station, you will meet me and I will discuss a little bit about what to expect.
- In the interim, grab a post-it note and a writing utensil. Take a look around the classroom. Complete the following two sentence starters:
 - In the classroom, I notice:
 - In the classroom, I wonder:
- On the back of the post-it, write down something you're excited about for the class.

Station 2: Name Tents!

Person with the most pockets reads.

- Welcome to Mr. Fredericks's class! At this station, you will be creating name tents! These tents will help me learn your name quickly and help your teammates learn your name as well!
- See my example in the middle of the station. Please write your first name, your preferred name in parenthesis (if you have one), and 3-5 symbols that represent you, such as your beliefs, hobbies, interests, values, etc.
- When you have added color to your name tent, share what these symbols represent with both shoulder partners!

Station 3: Cards and Puzzles!

Person with the prettiest eyes reads:

- Welcome to Mr. Fredericks's class! This station has two parts!
- First, fill out the index card with the following information, using a marker. Please use a blue card if your assigned gender is male and a pink card if your assigned gender is female. See my card for reference.

Grade Level

Period ____

Pronoun:

Name (First and Last)

Notes: (insert preferred name here)

Team:

- Once your index card is complete, I have left a puzzle for you and your teammates to complete. Divide yourself into two teams of four and work on the puzzle given.

Station 4: All About Me!

Person with the longest name reads.

- Welcome to Mr. Fredericks's class! At this station, you will be completing the All About Me page!
- This page has many things to complete, so take your time and make it look pretty! Add color to the page and really think about what describes you. You will be using this page all week; be sure to take good care of it!